The old Senior High School, razed to make room for the present building.
Inset: El Dorado's first high school.

DEDICATION

Within the pages of this El Doradoan you will find a pictorial record of school life at El Dorado High School in 1951-1952. The three buildings pictured on these pages have housed our high school from its beginning in 1881 to the present year. We, the editors and staff, hope this will recall your hours of work and play here. We also hope you will recognize and appreciate the increased opportunities in every field—curriculum, activities and athletics—represented by the growth from the six-room native stone building, which was destroyed by fire in 1900, and the red brick structure, which served from 1901 to 1935 when it was razed to make room for our fine modern school plant of today.

To our school, its past growth and achievements and its wonderful prospects for the future, we dedicate our 1952 El Doradoan. May the program and guidance offered in E. H. S. help each student find the place where he may best serve his community and nation.

Under the leadership of Principal W. M. Staerkel, our capable faculty has endeavored to give us the best in leadership. They have been ready to encourage and guide us at all times. To our faculty, we, the students of E. H. S., give our thanks and appreciation for being such a wonderful group of people.

proud of achievements

Twelve years ago a group of timid, unlearned youngsters began their tour through the realms of education. Analogous to a sight-seeing tour, it was initiated with all the energy and enthusiasm of youth catching its first glimpse of something new. The various books, the everchanging teachers, the new clothes and certain incidents now thought of as commonplace, such as buying a new pencil, brought effervescent joys to these kids.

After a while the newness began to wear off, the never-ending homework and everyday drudgery became monotonous, and all the necessary painstaking efforts of school life revealed themselves. Of course there were the dates and the parties and all the other gay times that helped them survive the trying ordeals and discouraging moments of education.

Today these timid, ignorant youngsters are the confident and capable seniors of E. H. S.; and if you asked any one of them, they would be very sure of themselves when they replied that it was well worth their efforts. They would not be so sure of themselves, however, if they were asked to say whether or not they are glad it is over. All these years they have waited patiently to become seniors, and now they are not sure whether they should be glad or sad.

At any rate, they were not idle during their last year of high school. In athletics, agriculture, forensics, music, and scholarship, as well as the numerous other activities in which they participated, they received more than an average number of awards and honors.

Now, as they are about to graduate, the seniors can look back over their past and have a justifiable sense of achievement and pride in a job well done.

Fifteen receive honors as GRADUATES CUM LAUDE

Each year the upper ten percent of the graduation class are chosen for Cum Laude. Members of this select group are honored for their good records and high scholastic achievements during their four years in high school. The valedictorian of the Class of 1952 is Lois Morgan; the salutatorian, Beverly Stiller.

is largest in school

The Juniors, the class of 1953, will be the seniors and leaders of next year. This class is numerically the largest class in El Dorado High School.

Juniors are the most fortunate students in school, in that they do not have to adjust to senior high ways in September, nor will they have to part permanently from their school friends in May.

The activities of this class are many and varied. A number rated high in music and forensics events, as well as in scholarship and athletics.

The class play, "In Spring the Sap" was presented on March 28 and provided fine entertainment for a large audience.

Bringing to a close the activities of the year, the class banquet was held on May 15 at the Masonic Hall and was followed by the "prom" in the school gym.

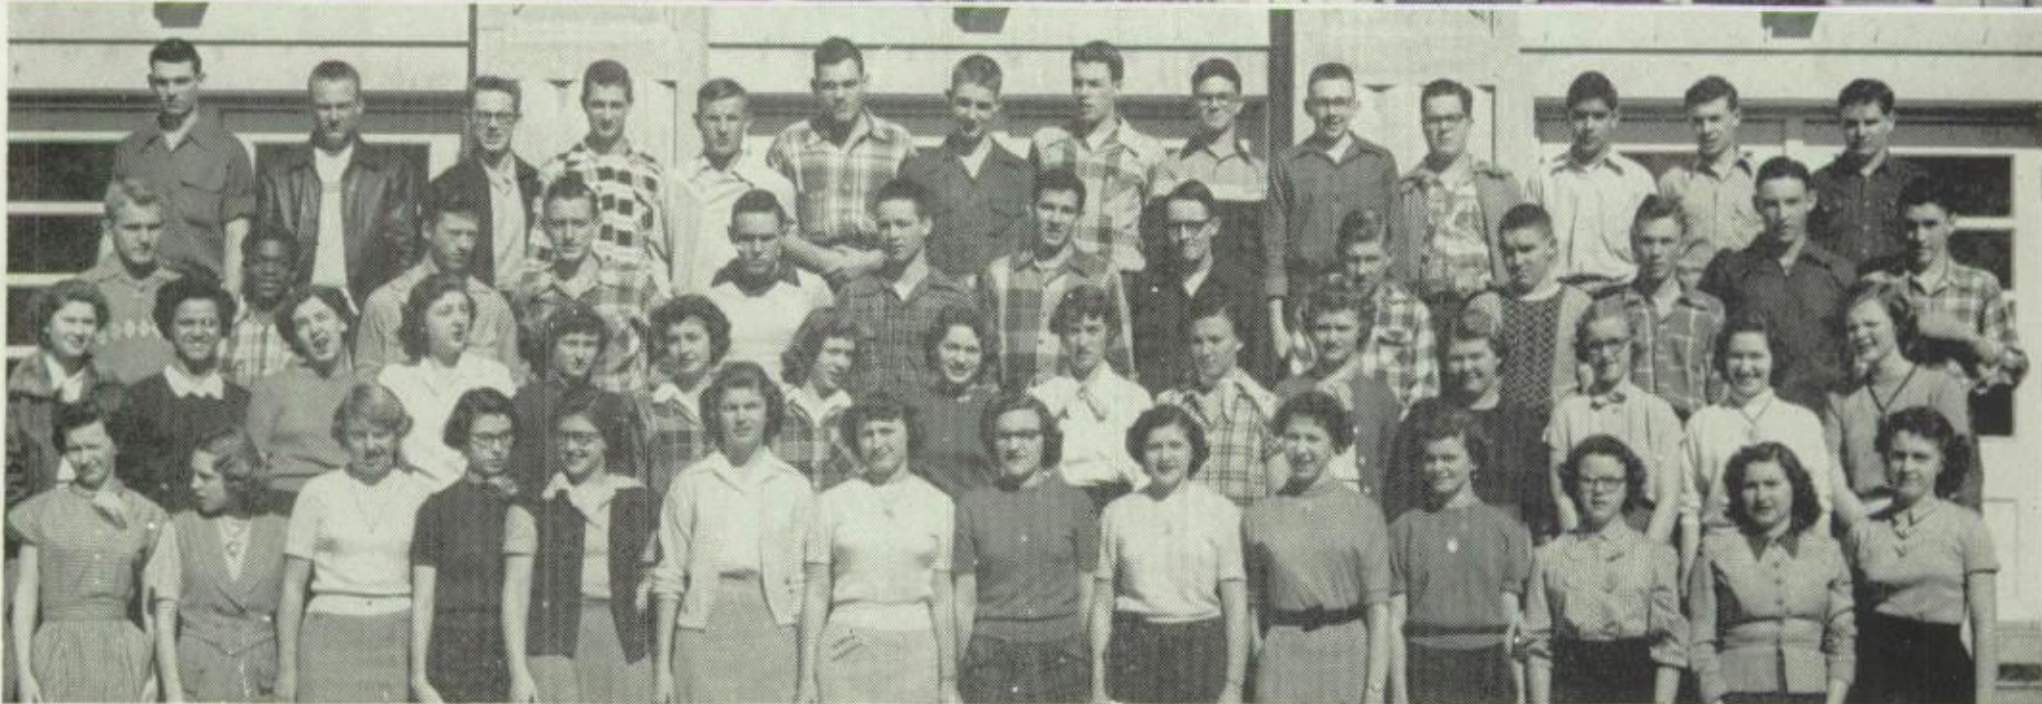

Class officers: Susie Murray treasurer; Paul Hawkins, Jr., vice-president; Jerry Peterson, president; Joy Cooper, secretary.

CLASS OFFICERS

The Sophomore Class entered Senior High School with many qualms and fears about the classes, the students, and the changes which they would have the first few weeks. There was a great surge of pride, however, under cover of these fears. The members of this class were proud of the record of E. H. S. They were proud that they were growing older, that now they would have a part in the many activities of the school. These were the days looked forward to and now they were here.

After classwork was well begun the Student Council gave the usual announcement that the trophies must be polished and the sign on the hill east of town must be cleaned and white-washed. They donned their old clothes and armed themselves with buckets, hoes, and brooms and did the task in one evening of hard work.

The sophomore party on March 23 was a pleasant way to end a successful year.

ACTIVITIES

and clubs of our school help students learn to live and work together. Their programs include drama, music, speech, and science. Kayettes and Hi-Y are character-building organizations. The Wildcat Yowls and El Doradoan offer opportunities for experience in writing.

Social and recreational events help develop personality so that students are better equipped to take their places in the life of the community and state.

Under the capable leadership of its president, Gene Elder; its vice-president, Dick Jolliffe; its secretary, Dean Seeber; and its sponsor, Mr. Staerkel; the Student Council worked diligently for the betterment of our school. The council planned many school parties, a highlight of which was the successful school carnival. Sufficient funds were raised to begin the furnishing of the recreational reading center in the library. Other activities included concessions at games, an apportionment of funds to help with the work of UNESCO, and the sponsoring of W. P. A. week.

With this successful record behind it, the last meeting of the 1951-1952 Student Council was adjourned.

FORENSICS

Cast of One-Act Play, "The Balcony Scene."
Seated: Harriet Myers, Polly McGinnis, Gene Elder, Ken Kassebaum, Kathy Burns, Bill Jester.
Standing: Mr. Shaffer, director; Jim Walls, Betty Binter.

The El Dorado debaters attended tournaments at Pittsburg, Topeka, Atchison, Newton, Hutchinson, Russell, Southwestern, Wyandotte, Emporia, Haven, and the district at Wichita University. Dean Seeber and Ed Wall won a second place trophy at Hutchinson; these two, Beverly Stiller, and Jim Lovern won third place at Emporia; and Myra Scott, Ralph Eckhardt, Leta Davenport, and Jim Cook won the first place trophy at the Haven tournament. The flu-stricken debaters, with Myra Scott, Ralph Eckhardt, Dean Seeber, and Jim Cook as their representatives, attended the district meet at Wichita.

Speakers at the district speech festival who received highly superiors and thus qualified for the state festival were Paul Hawkins, Jr., in two events, Muriel Golobay, Leta Davenport, and the one-act play, "The Balcony Scene." El Dorado tied for second place in the Ark Valley speech festival, missing first by only two points.

presented by seniors and juniors

The senior class play, "Charley's Aunt," was very capably presented by the pictured cast and prompters. This riotous comedy in three acts was directed by Principal William Staerkel and involved some beautiful scenery changes.

The uproariously funny comedy points the involvements that college boys can get into over girls. A fine job of acting was turned in by the entire cast.

"In Spring the Sap," a three act comedy, was presented by the junior class under the direction of Mr. Walbourn.

The action revolves around an elderly Justice of the Peace, who is too busy with his invention to marry people. Three romantic couples, a female football player, a poet, an interfering woman who runs a soda shop next door, her daughter and several others all add complications to the plot.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY makes a "hit"

The All-School play, "Henrietta, the Eighth," concerned the hilarious trials and tribulations of the eighth secretary to Mrs. Sutton, the busy mother of two spoiled "brats." These two girls, when they discover that their fun is being ruined, start plotting to get rid of this newcomer in their home. These antics are further complicated by the frequent appearances of the "Coke Set." This play directed by Mr. Shaffer was enjoyed by all those attending.

BAND serves school and community

It's a cold winter night, but the rousing strains of "On, You Wildcats" can be heard distinctly from the football stadium, played with the characteristic pep and enthusiasm of our Senior High band. This is the band that also is on hand from the tip-off to the last whistle of all the basketball games, and that provides enjoyment at the Band Regalement and other functions.

It takes a lot of work to have a good musical group, but there is fun too, and the band and orchestra banquets are always remembered.

We pay tribute to Mr. Wallingford and the fine band of 1951-1952. Those serving as officers this year were Wanda Kimball, president; Joyce Brower, vice-president; and Sidney Martin, secretary-treasurer.

THE COLOR GUARD

is composed of Bill Mollohan, Willis Waldorf, Bill Feder, and Robert Derstein.

plays for graduation

On the job until the last minute, our orchestra ends its successful year as the last graduate, diploma in hand, leaves the auditorium. Then the many sheets of music are filed away until the next school bell rings.

This year's officers were Jack Wichers, president; Marilyn C. Smith, vice-president; and Judy Deewall, secretary-treasurer. Much recognition and thanks are due to this fine orchestra and its director, Mr. Ralph Wallingford, for a job well-done.

get top rating

Under the able direction of Miss Jeanette Barbour our choruses, ensembles, and soloists once again made an excellent showing in the spring contests. They gave their annual concert and appeared in assembly many times. These students have chosen music as an elective and get much enjoyment from their work.

BOYS' STATE

Each year the civic clubs of El Dorado send a selected group of high school students to Boys' and Girls' State. There, for a full week these students learn how our government is run.

Richard Thompson was elected lieutenant governor of Boys' State. All of the others were active in campaigns and elections.

GROVE'S GREMLINS

The science club, under the direction of Mr. Grove, met for the first time this year and drew up a constitution, choosing Grove's Gremlins for its name. The purpose of the club is to learn more about science and to work on various projects.

WILDCAT YOWLS

informs students and faculty

The journalism class is responsible for the publication of our school paper, "Wildcat Yowls." The staff and sponsor, Mr. Shaffer, have tried hard to make the paper interpret the life and activities of the school and to make the news interesting and reliable.

Seated: Vivian Cannon, typist; Don Nye, sports writer; Dotty Lou Harper, business manager (first semester); Joan Dunning, Mailing editor; and Helen Haggard, typist. Standing: Jim Lovern, sports editor (first semester); and Jim Cook, chief copyreader.

Seated: Charlene Hearrell, Barbara Reichert, Beverly Caldwell, Donna Stock, and Glen Ridgeway, copywriters. Standing: Charles Sweeney, Bill Kirkman, and Alberta Knowles, copywriters.

Helen Haggard, business manager; Miss Hoyt, adviser; Lois Srader and Don Nye, co-editors; Ed Wall, business manager.

Each member of the El Doradoan staff had an important part in making this year's El Doradoan, whether in planning, selling, photography, copy writing, typing, or other necessary work. They sincerely hope that you will enjoy the book as much as they have enjoyed working on it.

The El Dorado F. F. A. chapter has had one of its most successful years in the history of the club.

First in line for honors the local boys won a silver emblem award in the National Dairy Judging Contest held at Waterloo, Iowa, on October 1, 1951. Individual ratings in this contest were Weldon Braman, silver; Kenneth Schmidt, silver; John Unger, silver; and Gene Dickinson, gold in showmanship. In qualifying for this national contest, the judging team took first in the state in dairy judging and ranked second in the entire state judging contest, which is the best record ever established by an El Dorado F. F. A. team.

During the year the El Dorado Chapter was entertained by skating parties, a hayrack ride, a dance, and other forms of recreation.

The officers for the year were John Unger president; Gene Dickinson vice-president; Eddie Jackson, secretary; Weldon Braman, treasurer; Richard Wilson, reporter; Mr. McMillan adviser.

The degree of State Farmer has been awarded to John Unger, Weldon Braman and Gene Dickinson.

The Kayettes Win Award For Achievement

The Kayettes is an organization of which E. H. S. is very proud. During the year 1951-1952 it boasted a membership of 275 girls, making it the largest Kayette club in Kansas. This year the most difficult award to earn, the coveted 3000-point plaque, was presented to the El Dorado Kayettes during the annual conference, held this year at Haven, Kansas.

Under the excellent, untiring guidance of its sponsors, Miss Ruth Payne and Mrs. Hallie Leben, and with the help of the officers and a cooperative Board of Directors, the club carried on many worthy projects. Among these were the supervision of the Red Cross Drive and the March of Dimes campaign which included a house-to-house coverage of the town.

This year's officers were Harriet Myers, president; Betsy Bacon, vice-president; Lois Morgan, secretary; and Marilyn C. Smith, treasurer.

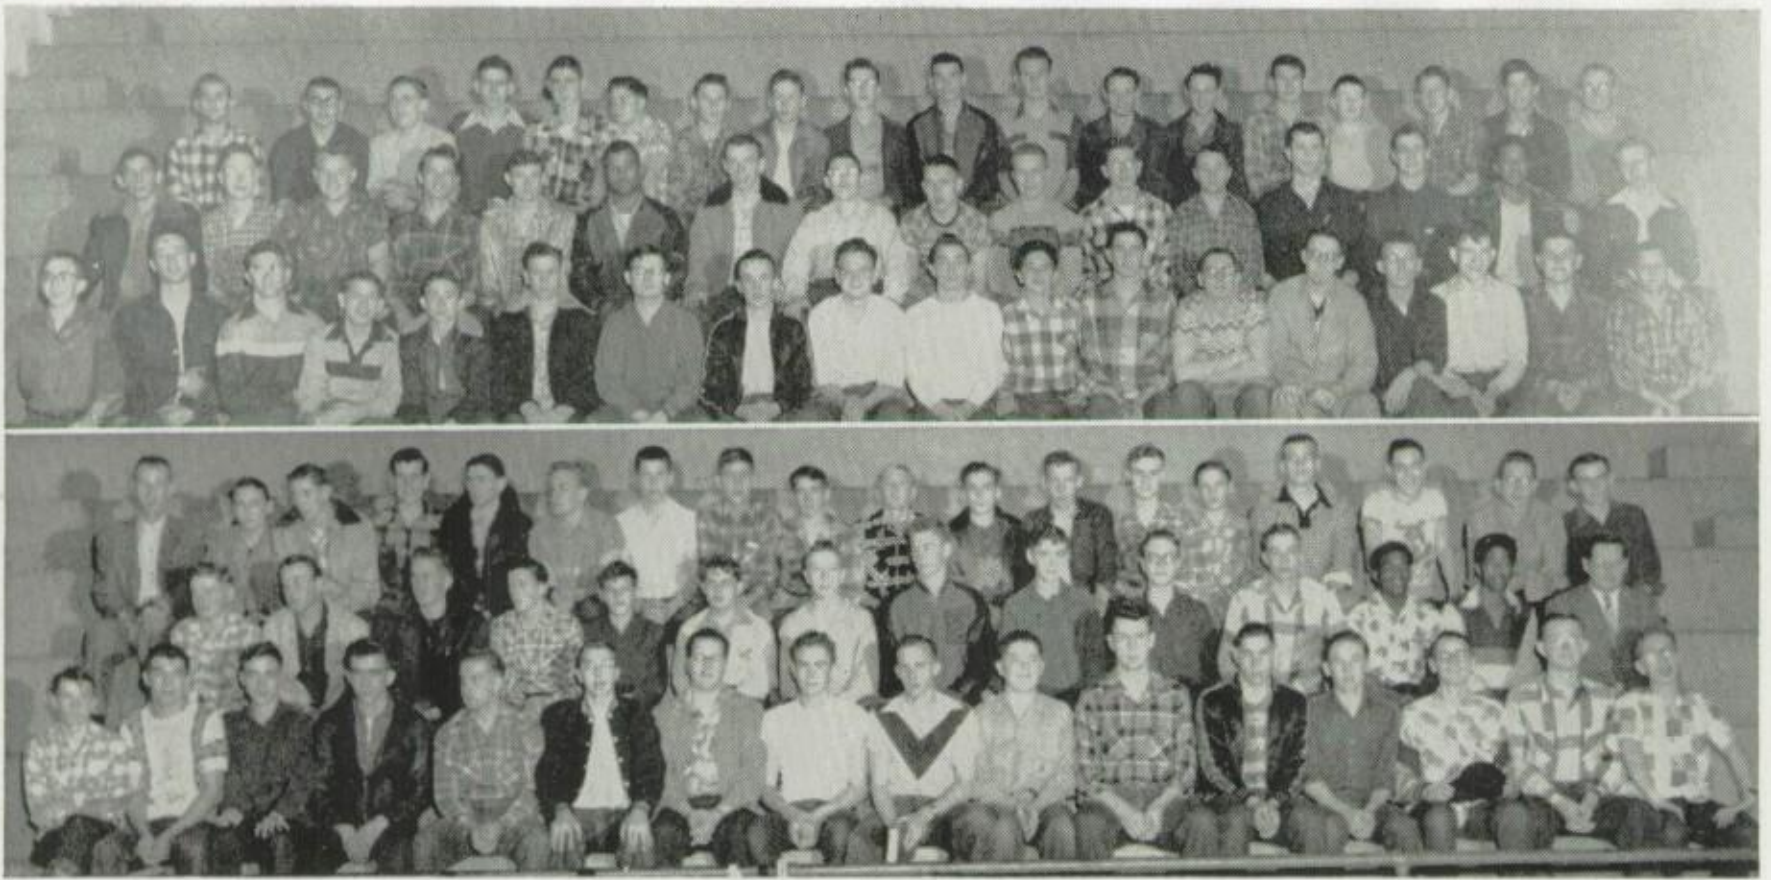

Providing opportunities for participation by all and enjoying fun and fellowship, the Kayettes are wholeheartedly carrying out their slogan of "Laugh, love and lift."

The climax of activities is reached during Kayette Week with the Mother-Daughter banquet as the outstanding event.

HI-Y CLUB shows growth

The Hi-Y organization this year was capably headed by Dick Robbins. So well has Dick served that he has been elected by popular acclaim to hold the office of president again next year. The club was ably assisted by its two new and well-liked sponsors, Mr. Wal-bourn and Mr. Whitson. The club had the largest number on its roll in several years.

The program chairman, Bob Hudson, planned well-organized meetings throughout the year. The diversified programs were spiritual, educational and entertaining.

Highlighting the year was the inauguration of the new officers at the annual Hi-Y banquet, held on March 25 at the Methodist church.

Under the rule of Gary Silor, president; Dean Seeber, vice-president; Richard Thompson, secretary; and Dan O'Brien, sergeant-at-arms, the E-Club has had a very successful year. No one can forget the initiation with the painted ears and noses and hair oil streaming down perspiring faces, giving to the air a smell of roses and sweat (almost as bad as Blue Waltz and green peppers). Then there was the E-Club - Faculty basketball game, in which the faculty emerged bruised and sore but victorious. Highlighting the year was the traditional E-Club banquet, in which the lettermen dress up (for once) and bring their dates for an evening of dining and dancing.

cheer teams on

This year the largest group of Red Peppers E.H.S. has ever had succeeded once more in achieving its goal of promoting good sportsmanship and in boosting and supporting our various school activities, athletics in particular.

Our annual hilarious initiation started the year off with a "bang" and brought in many new girls.

These snaps show a few of the activities in which Pep Club takes part—the initiation that everybody dreads but loves, our energetic cheerleaders, and our girls' Pep Club at a basketball game.

As usual the high light of the year was the annual Christmas Dance at which the huge tree and other colorful decorations made the gym a "winter wonderland."

The year was brought to a close with the Pep Club Banquet, where emotions varied from the joy of the sophomores and juniors to the tears of the departing seniors. The fact that consoles the seniors is that next year another wonderful group of girls will carry on the traditions and continue to make our Red Peppers the very best Pep Club in the whole "Sunflower" state.

The officers this year were Sally Thomason, president; Joyce Sargent, vice-president; Elfrieda Eisenhour, secretary; Ann Cook, treasurer; Lucille Van Beber, manager; and Wini Carter, adviser.

SNOW QUEEN Reigns Over Community Parade

Cooperating with El Dorado merchants, the students of E. H. S. elected Queen Margaret Ann Mannion and four attendants—Lore Meier, Sally Thomason, Merna Crum and Joy Cooper to preside over the annual Christmas festival.

ATHLETICS

play an important role in the life of the student and of the community. Our teams competed in football, basketball, track, golf, tennis, baseball, and wrestling. In addition, 135 boys participated in the 1951-52 season in intramural basketball. About 155 boys and 170 girls were enrolled in gym classes where exercises and games help to develop healthy, poised citizens.

WILDCAT FOOTBALL

eleven finish second in valley

The El Dorado High School Wildcats completed an outstanding football season this year. Finishing in a tie for second place with Wellington for the second straight year, the Wildcats compiled 8 wins and 2 losses for the 1951 season. El Dorado's only two losses came at the hands of East and Newton. The Wildcats sent both of the traditional non-league foes, Augusta and Eureka down to defeat this year. (North High of Wichita, had to forfeit all the games in which an ineligible player appeared.)

The Wildcats, coached by Bob McCollum and Harold Bryan not only won the games in the scoring column but also in the statistics of the game.

BASKETBALL FIVE

win third in regional

Finishing "hot," the E. H. S. Wildcat basketball team turned in a rather poor season. The Wildcats were plagued with bad luck and injuries all year. Winning four games and losing fifteen, the Wildcats finished in the Ark Valley cellar but took third place in the Regional Tournament at Newton. North High of Wichita forfeited both games to El Dorado because of an ineligible player.

CROSS COUNTRY WINS STATE MEET

The Wildcat's two-mile team, consisting of five experienced seniors, this year finally succeeded in bringing home for El Dorado a state championship. Both "A" and "B" teams were undefeated during the regular season, downing Wichita East, Topeka, Haskell, Highland Park, Newton, and Nortonville by wide margins. In the state meet they scored thirty-eight points, five ahead of their nearest rival.

Cross-country is fast becoming a major sport, not only in El Dorado, but throughout the state.

WILDCAT WRESTLERS

place high in state meet

Wrestling, a sport comparatively new in our school, has again proved that E. H. S. can more than hold her own with other more experienced schools. When last years' stalwarts failed to report because of various reasons, Coach McDonald had to rebuild almost the entire squad. Proof of his success is the fine showing which was made during the regular season and in the state meet, where they tied with Wichita East for fifth place.

TUMBLING TEAM

E. H. S. has reason to be proud of its tumbling team this year. The team has performed before many county high schools, as well as before our assembly. It looks as if Mr. McDonald's boys have definitely installed tumbling as a recognized school sport. Hats off to the tumbling team!

BASEBALL TEAM shows fine form

The El Dorado Wildcats baseball squad started off a good season with a show of baseball prowess for the approval of Coach Jim McDonald.

In the season thus far, the Wildcats have defeated two teams and lost only one game. Their only defeat was to Wichita East by the narrow margin of 2-0. The Wildcats wins included Clearwater and the Chilocco Indians. As the yearbook goes to press there are seven games remaining on our schedule in addition to the regionals. These are with Newton, Topeka, Winfield, Clearwater, Chilocco, North High and St. Mary's.

Coach Galen Blackmore, with the able assistance of Harold Bryan, is again building one of the school's traditionally powerful track teams. Some of the meets in which our "thin clads" represent us are the Wichita and Hutchinson invitationals, K. U. Relays, a night meet at Newton, several duals, and the re-

Tennis has shown progress as a sport in E. H. S. In its second year as a school sport, tennis has attracted many boys. Playing under numerous hardships, such as no regular coach, the team is working diligently toward perfection. We can be justly proud of our tennis team.

Our "link" squad has been practicing hard for several weeks preparing for the coming season. Under the direction of Coach Bill Hill, golf is gaining enthusiasm among the boys. There are several excellent prospects on the golf team, and E. H. S. is confident of an excellent season. Our thanks to the golf team for their work.
